Conn Brown Harbor

Launch your boat from the public boat ramp and enjoy spectacular fishing in Redfish Bay in moments. The shrimping fleet can still be seen taking to the waters, if your timing is right, you can purchase fresh shrimp at the harbor.

Aransas Pass Civic Center

Whether it's for a few people or a thousand, a meeting, a trade show, or a banquet, the new state-of-the-art Civic - Center is customer-tailored to meet your specific needs. Add in the water, sand, surf, and sightseeing from a picturesque Gulf location in the Harbor City, and you truly have the perfect "home for successful events."

Seaman Memorial Tower

Located at the harbor entrance and built May 9, 1979, this memorial tower is a monument to the fishermen lost at sea. Stop by and pay respects to those who lived their lives fishing the waters of Aransas Pass.

Aransas Pass Visitor Center

The Aransas Pass Chamber of Commerce / Visitor Center and the City of Aransas Pass continue to grow together. We are poised for the future but haven't forgotten the past. It is a city steeped in tradition but changing with the times both today and tomorrow.

Lighthouse Lake Trails

Turn to the Lighthouse Lake Trails for kayaking like you've never seen. The trails take kayakers through a maze of ecological wonder. Whether it is just a day in the sun, a day bird watching or fishing, Aransas Pass is the place to be for saltwater kayaking.

Rialto Theatre

Experience art, music and live theater all in one location! The event calendar at Rialto Theater offers the community and visitors open acoustic jams, Shakespeare reader's theater, yoga classes, benefit concerts, and more.

Aransas Pass Community Park

The 36 acre park offers views of Redfish Bay, two playgrounds with covered picnic areas complete with tables, barbeque pits and a pavilion for large gatherings. The Aransas Pass Nature Trail is a great place for bird and wildlife watching. Enjoy paved and wooded walkways and a covered gazebo overlooking wetlands.

Dog Park

The Aransas Pass Dog Park is open to the public and offers two large grassed areas for small and large dogs. The park includes agility course, shade structures, and benches.
